

End of the Rainbow Performances

Revival Theatre Company (RTC) and its Board of Directors place the health and safety of our patrons, creative team and performers, above all else. At this time, Revival Theatre Company will postpone all performances of End of the Rainbow, scheduled to perform March 26-29, 2020 at CSPS Hall.

End of the Rainbow will now run October 1-4, 2020. Please visit our website at www.revivaltheatrecompany.com for complete information. Options for ticket holders are listed on our website and at artsiowa.com. You will find flexible options to accommodate the new show dates.

Tickets:

- Subscriptions will remain available through May 31, 2020
- All tickets that have already been issued will automatically roll into the new date and are still valid.
- If you can still make the new date on your current chosen evening, you do not need to do anything.
- Patrons should only contact the ticket office if they need to change their tickets in some way.
- Single ticket buyers who have currently purchased tickets to End of the Rainbow, can make a date change if need be, without any penalization.
- If you can't make any of the new dates, you can turn your ticket purchase into a donation. Please call the ticket office (Orchestra Iowa) at (319) 366-8203, regarding this situation

Venue:

- End of the Rainbow will still be performed at CSPS Hall October 1-4

This is a difficult time for all performing arts organizations. We would greatly appreciate any and all financial contributions. Click here to make a donation today. Season tickets can also be purchased. We are grateful to everyone for working with us to minimize the financial impact on all involved.

For questions or for information, please contact Revival Theatre Company, at Contact@revivaltheatrecompany.com.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.
