

THE CAMERON SULLENBERGER OVERTURE SERIES

Revival Theatre Company's Cameron Sullenberger Overture Series is a new annual benefit that raises funds for RTC productions and educational programs.

This series honors RTC's co-founder and musical director Cameron Sullenberger, who passed away in 2023.

Cameron was passionate about singers and musicians; this new annual event will focus on bringing together the area's best in the musical theatre. The Overture Series will celebrate classic Broadway scores and intimate solo concerts, in a two-night only event.

The inaugural event is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, April 12-13, 2024. Jason Robert Brown's Tony Award-winning Parade will be presented in concert format at historic CSPS Hall in Cedar Rapids' New Bo neighborhood.

PARADE IN CONCERT

Amid religious intolerance, political injustice, and racial tension, the stirring Tony Award-winning Parade explores the endurance of love and hope against all the odds. With a book by acclaimed playwright Alfred Uhry (Driving Miss Daisy) and a rousing, colorful and haunting score by Jason Robert Brown (Songs For a New World, The Last Five Years, Bridges of Madison County), Parade is a moving examination of the darkest corners of America's history.

In 1913, Leo Frank, a Brooklyn-raised Jew living in Georgia, is put on trial for the murder of thirteen-year-old Mary Phagan, a factory worker under his employ. Already guilty in the eyes of everyone around him, a sensationalist publisher and a janitor's false testimony seal Leo's fate. His only defenders are a governor with a conscience and, eventually, his assimilated Southern wife who finds the strength and love to become his greatest champion.

Daring, innovative and bold, Parade is filled with soaring music and a heart-wrenching story, offering a moral lesson about the dangers of prejudice and ignorance that should not be forgotten.
